How it works

If you're a Midway, Utah homeowner who needs to sell your home quickly, you may feel overwhelmed at the thought of preparing your house for listing — especially if you have some cosmetic or repair issues that are likely to be a turnoff to potential buyers. Fortunately, I Buy Utah Homes can help. As professional home buyers who want to purchase your Midway, Utah house, rather than real estate agents who are only able to list it, we can get the transaction underway immediately — giving you time to do more important tasks than spending your free time searching for a qualified buyer. Read on to learn more about I Buy Utah Homes and what you can expect after getting started with a no-obligation quote.

What Are the Benefits of Selling Your Midway, Utah Home to Us?

With the advent of entire cable networks devoted to the house-hunting process, many prospective buyers now have an eye for perfection — and if your Midway, UT home doesn't fit that bill, you could find a traditional sale difficult. Even buyers who don't necessarily want a move-in-ready house may balk at the idea of having to perform major repairs shortly after moving in.

At I Buy Utah Homes, we purchase homes in ANY condition, even those with damage or a great deal of deferred maintenance. Because this is not a typical transaction in which financing depends on the condition or market value of the home, no inspection or appraisal is necessary. I Buy Utah Homes also pays all closing costs and disburses the funds in cash, ensuring you'll have the money at closing rather than waiting for a bank transfer or a mailed check. Although it usually takes an average of a few weeks to complete the Midway, Utah home buying process from beginning to end, in some cases we can close within 7 days.
